Annual reminder of balance due taxes for tax year 2010

Amount due: [REDACTED]

We're required to send you this annual reminder explaining the amount you still owe for your 2010 (Form 5329) taxes.

If you are already working with us to address the amount you owe, you have an installment agreement, or we notified you that we suspended enforced collection on your account, you don't need to do anything.

To prevent interest and applicable penalties from continuing to increase, pay the amount due by April 20, 2020.

What you need to do immediately

If you agree with the amount and you're not working with an IRS representative

- Pay the amount due of [REDACTED] by April 20, 2020, to prevent interest and applicable penalties from continuing to increase.
- Pay online or mail a check or money order with the attached payment stub. You can pay online now at www.irs.gov/payments

If we notified you that we suspended enforced collection on your account because it would create a financial hardship (meaning you would be unable to pay basic reasonable living expenses if we levied) and your financial situation has not changed, you don't need to do anything.

If you disagree with the amount due

Call us at 800-829-0922 to review your account with a representative. Be sure to have your account information available when you call.

We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit IRS.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. It's free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Apply for a payment plan (installment agreement) at IRS.gov/OPA
- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history visit IRS.gov/account.

If we don't hear from you

Pay [REDACTED] by April 20, 2020, to avoid interest and any applicable penalty charges.

If you don't pay the amount due or call us to make payment arrangements, we will continue to send you annual reminder notices of your balance due until the statute of limitations for collection expires.

When you do not pay your tax debt, a federal tax lien arises as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors and we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights). If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The NFTL may also appear on your credit report.

What you need to know

Denial or revocation of United States Passport:

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing a seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt.

What you need to know – continued

Denial or revocation of United States Passport – continued

Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $54,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted, or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $54,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at www.irs.gov/passports.

What you need to know

What you need to know

You owe a shared responsibility payment (SRP) because one or more members of your tax household didn't have minimum essential health coverage, per Internal Revenue Code Section 5000A. The SRP amount that you owe is not subject to a Notice of Federal Tax Lien filing, a levy on your property, or the failure-to-pay penalty. However, we charge interest on unpaid SRP balances. We may also apply your federal tax refunds to the SRP balance until it is paid in full.

Payment options

Pay now electronically

We offer free payment options to securely pay your tax bill directly from your checking or savings account. When you pay online or with your mobile device, you can:

- Receive instant confirmation of your payment
- Schedule payments in advance
- Reschedule or cancel a payment before the due date

You can also pay by debit or credit card for a small fee. To see all of our payment options, visit www.irs.gov/payments.

Payment plans

If you can't pay the full amount you owe, pay as much as you can now and make arrangements to pay your remaining balance. Visit www.irs.gov/paymentplan for more information on installment agreements and online payment agreements. You can also call us at 1-800-829-3903 to discuss your options.

Offer in Compromise

An offer in compromise allows you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. If we accept your offer, you can pay with either a lump sum cash payment plan or periodic payment plan. To see if you qualify, use the Offer in Compromise Pre-Qualifier tool on our website. For more information, visit www.irs.gov/offers.
